Bioenergetics Wellness System

Non-Invasive. Supports Effective Optimal Health

Uncovering the Human Body-Field

Frontier science reveals the existence of a regulating Body-Field—an intricate network of energy and information operating at the sub-cellular level. At Energy4Life, we term this the Human Body-Field and have spent over 30 years researching its functions and structures.

Key Insights:

Root Casues: We've identified that physical issues often originate from distortions and blockages in the Body-Field, which acts as the master control system for all body functions.

Restoring Harmony: Our Bioenergetic Wellness System corrects these distortions, allowing the Body-Field to support optimal physiological function more effectively.

Step One

Assess the Human Body-Field with custom scanning software

Bioenergetics Wellness System

A Bioenergetics Wellness System (BWS) scan returns a detailed overview of your Body-Field, including multiple screens and physiologically accurate graphics.

In a matter of seconds, a scan can pinpoint the distortions in information, giving you a clear instruction to support your health – starting at the very root.

Step Two

Rejuvenate and unblock energetic distortions

Energy4Life miHealth 2.0

Using proven PEMF (Pulsed Electromagnetic Frequencies) and bioresponsive microcurrent technology, the miHealth clears pathways for information to flow through the body properly, providing immediate support.

The BWS scanning software tells you exactly how and where to place the miHealth 2.0 device.

Step Three

Imprint the Information of the body's control system

Infoceutical™ Solutions

Infoceutical™ Solutions are liquids imprinted with proprietary bio-information. They are recommended on the basis of your unique BWS scan results and interact directly with the Human Bio-Field to support proper information flow.

The easy-to-follow protocol includes instructions for each priority infoceutical, as well as the number of drops to use.
